CRIMINAL CONVICTION AND CIVIL FINDING HISTORY SELF-DISCLOSURE QUESTIONNAIRE

The offer of employment you make to the finalist candidate for a position that meets one or more of the security/safety sensitive criteria, including positions covered by the Washington State Child and Adult Abuse Law (CAAL), must be made contingent on obtaining a satisfactory criminal conviction background result for the candidate (<http://www.washington.edu/admin/acadpers/admin/planning.html>)

After you make the contingent employment or courtesy appointment offer, you may use this form is to ask the candidate to disclose potentially disqualifying criminal convictions and civil findings. After your candidate completes this questionnaire, contact your Dean/Chancellors' Office human resources representative.

If your candidate discloses a history of criminal conviction(s), your Dean/Chancellor's Office human resources representative will work with the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Personnel to determine whether the disclosed conviction(s) disqualify the candidate from employment. If the candidate does not disclose a potentially disqualifying conviction, your Dean/Chancellor's Office human resources representative will initiate the criminal conviction background check process.

CRIMINAL CONVICTION AND CIVIL FINDING HISTORY SELF-DISCLOSURE QUESTIONNAIRE FOR ACADEMIC PERSONNEL

This questionnaire is ONLY used for those academic personnel positions/appointments that are subject to a criminal conviction background check.

PLEASE TYPE OR PRINT RESPONSES

The University conducts a criminal conviction background check for positions that the University has identified as security/safety sensitive, including those covered by the Child and Adult Abuse Law (CAAL). Having a criminal conviction and/or civil finding record does not necessarily disqualify an individual for employment at the University. However individuals with certain types of convictions or civil findings may be ineligible for employment in some positions, as required by law. You are being asked to complete this form because you have been identified as a qualified candidate for a position either as an employee or a courtesy appointment. The information you provide will be used as part of the criminal conviction background/civil finding review process.
