Certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a qualifying exigency must include written documentation confirming a military member’s active duty or call to active duty status. Please check one of the following:

- A copy of the military member’s active duty orders is attached.
- Other documentation from the military certifying that the military member is on active duty (or has been notified of an impending call to active duty) is attached.
- I have previously provided my employer with sufficient written documentation confirming the military member’s active duty or call to active duty status.

Qualifying Reason for Leave

Describe the situation (“qualifying exigency”) that makes it necessary for you to request leave:

Certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a qualifying exigency includes any available written documentation which supports the need for leave. The documentation may include such documents as a copy of a meeting announcement for informational briefings sponsored by the military, a document confirming an appointment with a counselor or school official, a document confirming the military member’s active duty or call to active duty status. Available written documentation supporting this request for leave is attached.
