INTRODUCTION TO J-1S

What is The J-1 Exchange Visitor Program?

Key Aspects

- Over 70 years old
- Around 300,000 participants every year
- Administered by U.S. Department of State
- Uses the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS)

Mission

To increase mutual understanding between people of the United States and people of other countries by means of educational and cultural exchanges, thereby strengthening the ties between the nations.

Details of J-1 Status

- Sponsor-, activity-, and location- specific
- Full-time activity only
- Temporary appointments only
- Period of stay can be a few days up to five years
- 12 & 24 month bars on certain categories
- Two-year home residence requirement (possible)
- Can be paid for outside "occasional lectures and short-term consultations"
 (only if authorized by ISO in advance)

Permitted Activities

J-1 exchange visitors may engage in:

- Research
- Observation
- Consultation
- Limited teaching
- Demonstrating special skills

The J visa is not a work permit.

J-1 Categories Sponsored by ISO

- Research Scholar/Professor
 Up to 5 years but 12- and 24-month bars on repeat participation
- Short-Term Scholar
 Up to 6 months
- Specialist
 Up to 12 months; by exception only

UW SPONSORSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Appointment Details

UW sponsors the following titles for J-1 status:

- Visiting titles
- Postdoctoral Scholar
- Acting Instructor
- Artist in Residence
- > Appointments must be full-time and have regular UW faculty sponsor supervision.
- > UW cannot sponsor tenured or tenure-track faculty as J-1 exchange visitors.

Funding requirements

There are two funding requirements:

- UW J-1 funding minimum
- UW salary minimum

Meeting the J-1 Funding Minimum

Scholar has enough money to support themselves and their family in the U.S.

Meeting the Salary Minimum

UW or another source is compensating the scholar at an appropriate level for the appointment title

J-1 Funding Minimum

UW Funding Minimum (applies regardless of title or salary source)

$2,100/month for the J-1 exchange visitor

$1,200/month for the J-2 spouse

$600/month for each J-2 child

Funding Source

At least 50% of funding minimum must come from a source other than personal or family funds.

UW Salary Schedule

For most titles, the J-1 will also have to show outside funding equivalent to the UW salary minimum for their title and rank.

Outside funding can include one or more government, employer, UW, or third-party sources. Personal or family funds do not count.

As courtesy titles, visiting scholars are not subject to the UW salary minimum. However, they still have to meet the J-1 funding minimum.

Funding and Salary Examples

	Example 1	Example 2	Example 3
Title	Visiting Scholar	Postdoctoral Scholar (experience level 0)	Visiting Associate Professor (nine-month)
Spouse?	Υ	N	Υ
Children?	3	0	1
Annual Funding Minimum	$61,200	$25,200	$46,800
Annual Salary Minimum	(none)	$53,760	$56,484

How to document funding

Funding documentation must:

- Come from the funding source
- Be signed and on letterhead
- Be written in English
- Include the scholar's name
- Include the sponsorship dates
- Include the exact funding amount in U.S. dollars

ISO will review funding documentation and contact you if it does not match or otherwise meet these requirements. Feel free to reach out to us with questions!

J-1 ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- English proficiency
- Health insurance
- Cultural exchange

J-1 English Proficiency

J-1 Exchange Program sponsors are required to confirm that prospective scholars have "sufficient proficiency in the English language [...] to successfully participate in his or her program and to function on a day-to-day basis."

> That proficiency must be determined by an objective measurement of English language.

Objective English Proficiency Measurements

- > Acceptable methods for documenting English proficiency:
 - A recognized English language test
 - Signed documentation from an academic institution or English language school
 - A documented interview conducted by the sponsor
- > Units must use one of these three methods to confirm proficiency before submitting the visa request.

Recognized English language test

Units should retain a test result copy with exchange visitor's name.

- Pass/fail test: Exchange visitor must have passed. (E.g.: Cambridge English)
- Scored test: The unit can decide necessary score. (E.g.: TOEFL)

Online or informal tests are not acceptable.

Units may choose to use the UW Admissions requirements for English proficiency.

Academic Institution or English Language School Requirements

Units should retain a signed document on school/institutional letterhead including:

- The exchange visitor's name
- Their proficiency level
- Dates of attendance
- Basis for proficiency assessment (e.g. completion of English coursework)

Documented English Proficiency Interview

How and when can the interview take place?

- Must be in-person or video if possible
- If neither is possible, a phone interview may be used
- The interview must be conducted before the J-1 visa request is submitted to ISO

The interview must be conducted by a UW employee, preferably the faculty sponsor or the unit administrator, who is proficient in English.

Resulting documentation should include:

- Participant names
- Interview date, time, and method
- What was discussed
- Assessment method (e.g. was a rubric or scoring method used)
- Statement that scholar is sufficiently proficient in English
- Signed and dated by interviewer

ISO is happy to review your interview documentation templates!

Informal assessment: The interviewer can discuss life in the U.S., e.g.:

- Where do you think you'll want to live?
- What support services are you interested in?
- Tell me about what you like to do outside of work.
- What do you think will be most challenging about living and working in the U.S.?

If the visitor can't answer these questions clearly and completely, they're probably not proficient enough for daily life in the U.S.

Formal assessment: The interviewer can use the TOEFL Scoring Rubric or another proficiency rubric of their choice.

Insurance Requirement

J-1 exchange visitors must obtain and maintain the following throughout their stay:

Health insurance

- Medical repatriation
- Evacuation insurance

Benefit	Required amount
Medical benefits	$100,000
Deductible per accident or illness	$500 maximum
Repatriation of remains	$25,000
Medical evacuation	$50,000

ISO collects the Insurance Compliance Form at check-in and with all J-1 extensions.

Cultural exchange requirement

All sponsors must have cultural exchange plans in place for the J-1 and J-2(s)

For possible activities, see:

- Our cultural exchange page
- FIUTS
- The Whole U
- Visiting Seattle (City of Seattle website)
- Experience Washington (commercial website)

J-1 Procedures

Exchange Visitor Responsibilities

- Pay $220 SEVIS fee and other visa application fees
- Attend check-in at ISO within 30 days of start date
- Maintain health insurance in compliance with federal law
- Avoid unauthorized employment
- Seek permission from ISO before engaging in "occasional lectures and consultations"
- Leave the U.S. within the 30-day grace period

Exhchange Visitor Responsibilities – cont'd

J-1 exchange visitors must report changes to ISO:

- Late arrival in U.S.
- Changes in address or contact information
- Early departure (either J-1 or J-2)

All changes can be submitted to ISO via email at acadvisa@uw.edu.

Sponsor responsibilities (POST-arrival)

- Make sure scholar does not start work before start date on DS-2019
- Help scholar settle in (Husky card, NetID, housing...)
- Ensure the scholar attends the ISO Check-In Session
- Provide cultural exchange opportunities
- Email acadvisa@uw.edu in advance of: early departures, changes in worksite, title, funding, research focus or duties, leave of absence, resignation, etc.
- Notify ISO immediately of any significant incidents involving the scholar: injuries, deaths, lawsuits, arrests, investigations, document loss or theft, etc.
- Extend the scholar's stay in a timely manner

Reporting Requirements - J-1 Incidents

UW must report the following incidents to the Department of State:

- Death, disappearance, or serious injury or illness of the exchange visitor
- Incidents involving the criminal justice system, or sexually-related incidents or abuse
- Negative press involving the J-1 program, or incidents where a foreign government has become involved
- Lost or stolen immigration documents
- Theft of intellectual property, or violation of export controls
- Other situations impacting exchange visitor safety

Please report any such incidents to ISO at acadvisa@uw.edu as soon as possible.

Reporting Requirements - Absences

- Absences from U.S. of 30+ days should be reported to ISO if scholar has:
 - Approved International Remote Work Request from UW Tax Office, or
 - Approved protected leave request from OAP

All changes and/or incidents can be emailed to ISO at acadvisa@uw.edu.

Transfer Procedures

Transferring to UW:

- Unit must submit a new J Visa Request and a copy or scan of the exchange visitor's current DS-2019
- ISO will contact the current program sponsor to arrange the transfer

Transferring from UW:

- Exchange visitor must submit a Transfer Verification Form to ISO
- ISO will contact the new program sponsor to arrange the transfer

Leaving the U.S.

Grace period

Exchange visitors have up to 30 days after the DS-2019 end date to leave the U.S.

If they leave during the grace period, no notice to ISO is necessary.

Leaving before DS-2019 end date

Report departure to ISO so that the DS-2019 can be updated.
