What is the AP Census?
Overview

> Built annually by OAP

> Snapshot reflects UW academic personnel population on October 31 of each year

> Allows tracking of changes to the academic personnel population year over year
How It’s Used

- AP Fact Sheet
- AP Profile
- AP New Hires & Terminations Reports
- Affirmative Action Plan
- Faculty Dashboard (produced by UWHR, created by Office of Finance, Planning, and Budgeting)
- IPEDS (Integrated Post Secondary Education Data System) Report
- AAUP (American Association of University Professors) Faculty Salary Survey
- Campus requests for faculty data
- Public requests for faculty data submitted via the Public Records Office
Who Is Included?

- People with academic appointments on October 31

  and

- People with positions in the “01 - Academic Personnel” job family group on October 31
What is Included

> Primary academic appointment details
> “Primary” Position in the Academic Personnel job family group

- If the person does not have a position in the Academic Personnel job family group, then the worker’s primary position is included
What Are the Goals For the Census Preparations?
For all individuals with active academic appointments on October 31:

- Primary appointment entered
- Rank corresponds to the worker’s job profile
- Academic appointing unit is valid
- Roster percent is valid (for titles requiring a roster value)
- Appointment end date is valid for the academic rank
Position Goals

For all individuals with active positions in the Academic Personnel job family group on October 31:

> Position entered
> Job profile that corresponds to worker’s primary academic rank
> End employment date is valid for job profile
Issues over time

- 0.4% of professorial faculty
- 12% of annual/multi-year faculty
- 6% of courtesy faculty
- 2% of librarians
- 30% of postdocs
- 6% of residents/fellows
- 18% of academic staff
How Will We Achieve Those Goals?
2024 Census Preparations Timeline

> Week of Aug 14: First office hour session
  – Held weekly on Thursdays at 1pm through October
  – https://washington.zoom.us/j/93873463587

> September 15: Merit restricted entry period ends

> Week of September 16: First appointment and position issues data deliveries (Tuesdays and Thursdays)
Timeline continued

- October 31: All transactions for academic personnel who will be active on October 31 need to be entered in Workday, with dean’s office approvals
- October 31: Snapshot date
- November 6: Census data pulled from Workday
  - Units will be contacted regarding any discrepancies in the census data
Keys to Success

> Prioritize appointment updates during August
  - Merit Restricted Entry period prohibits job changes

> Ensure transactions are complete and accurate
  - Send backs will delay approvals and may result in Census errors

> Ask questions during Office Hours
  - The time is yours, please use it!
